4. License, Permit, Labeling and Permission Information

Provide copies of licenses and permits issued by regulatory agencies as required for your product(s).

It is the responsibility of the vendor to obtain and provide to the Market Manager copies of all licenses and permits required for the sale of vendor's products at the JFM along with this application.

-License and permit requirements (if needed) may include, but not limited to: nursery (if selling perennials); processing; safe handling of potentially hazardous food; sales tax; and certified scale.

-Potentially hazardous foods need extra care in handling, as required by State and Local regulations. Examples include: meat, poultry, fish, baked goods with high-moisture vegetables, eggs, ice cream, custards, cheese, and other defined items.

-Liability Insurance – Vendor is responsible for their own personal and product liability insurance. Insurance is encouraged for all vendors. Insurance is required for vendors selling potentially hazardous foods.

-Vendors will provide a copy of automobile insurance.

-Labeling – Vendors are responsible for meeting all labeling requirements.

We are a producer-focused market. Permission may be granted to current seasonal vendors for a limited amount of products from other farms. These “supplemental products” must be Wisconsin grown, less than 35% of a vendor's sales and contribute something that is needed to our market. Please complete a separate application for each supplemental product you wish to sell at the market.

6. Agreement

I have read the rules, regulations and policies as described for the JFM and hereby agree to abide by them. Further, I agree to sell at the JFM only such items as those listed above. I also acknowledge these products must be of my own production and produced at the location described on my application, with exception of JFM policies/procedures section A paragraph C.

I agree that the JFM has authority to immediately settle any disputes regarding product legitimacy, procedural and vendor conduct rule violations subject to appeal under the procedures set forth in the market rules.

I agree to allow for inspection of my records and of the premises where the products offered for sale are produced. The JFM and/or representatives of the market will carry out these inspections at any time. Failure to allow an inspection will constitute a violation of market policies.

I understand that the JFM does not carry any insurance policies to cover individual participants and that I may be required to carry such insurance.
